FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(San Bernardino, CA) Supervisor Josie Gonzales received word from a reporter on Thursday that a recall effort was being made by a small group of 5th District residents. In response to this action, Supervisor Gonzales said, “I see this as a unique opportunity to better inform the community about the County’s efforts to help residents and business owners improve their lives. Caltrans’ construction of Interstate 210 establishes State Street as the main thoroughfare through Muscoy to Interstate 15 and to Cal State University San Bernardino. The new freeway traffic will create drastic impacts that must be addressed to best serve the community. The county is trying to use its best resources to empower the County residents to manage the direction of the new growth as a result of the freeway. The county is not alone in seeing the need to prepare. The San Bernardino City Unified School District has proposed two school sites in Muscoy in order to handle the growing student population. I will always encourage the citizens of the Fifth District to participate in the important planning efforts that will affect their future. Planned development makes for better communities. Especially when we unite our efforts, we have the best opportunity to improve the quality of people’s lives.”
